

BLACK WOMEN & VIOLENCE:

A COMMUNITY RESPONSE

MARCH 10, 2020 | 10:00 AM TO 2:00 PM | CLARK UNIVERSITY, HIGGINS LOUNGE

Join us as we examine the current state of domestic violence against Black women, particularly in Massachusetts. Hear from experts and industry leaders about the realities of domestic violence and learn how promote healing for survivors and those who have been affected by violence in the Black community.

Panelists Include:

- Rubby Wuaba, District Attorney's Office Worcester
- Priscilla Rwandarugali, YWCA ICAPP Facilitator
- Page Clark, Director of Community Programs Elizabeth Stone House
- Isa Woldegiorguis, Executive Director, The Center for Hope and Healing, Inc.
- Patience Hemenway, Wellness Workshop Facilitator

The event will conclude with interactive discussion on how to promote healing for survivors and those who have been affected by violence in the Black community.

For questions, please contact Deborah Hall via email at dhall@ywcacm.org

SPONSORED BY:

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca
Central Massachusetts

PARTICIPATING DEPARTMENTS:

Psychology, Sociology, Women's and Gender Studies (WGS), International Development, Community, and Environment (IDCE), and Multicultural and First Generation Student Support (MFGSS)