

The Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Clark University, Worcester, Massachusetts, U.S.A. seeks applications to its doctoral program in Holocaust History and Genocide Studies and to its new cross-disciplinary PhD in Genocide Studies. Applications from any country are welcome.

The Strassler Center is a forum for education and scholarship about the Holocaust, the Armenian Genocide, and other genocides around the world. Dedicated to teaching, research, and public service, the Center trains the Holocaust historians and genocide studies scholars of the future—the next cadre of professors, teachers, Holocaust museum directors and curators, and non-governmental organization and government agency experts-about genocide and genocidal situations. Our faculty include Thomas Kühne (Holocaust), Frances Tanzer (Holocaust), Ken MacLean (East Asia and Transitional Justice), Chris Davey (Afrika and Genocide Prevention), and Sultan Doughan (Holocaust Pedagogy and Antisemitism), and affiliated faculty from eight departments. A search to fill the Kaloosdian Mugar Chair in Armenian Genocide Studies is currently underway.

The deadline for applications to the program is 15 January 2023. Further information and the application are online: <https://www.clarku.edu/centers/holocaust/doctoral-programs/>

Doctoral students receive a full tuition subvention and fellowship support in the form of an annual living stipend and research bursary throughout the five years of the Ph.D. program.
