

Cynthia Enloe

Fall 2019 Lecture Series

Two Lectures

Johnson Auditorium | Sackler 120 | 12pm-1:15pm

NOV 21

A Voter's Gender Guide to Making Election Choices

Americans - along with Britons, Italians, Turks, and South Africans - have to sort out gender-tangled fears, claims, hopes, and myths in order to cast their votes thoughtfully. Using a feminist curiosity can help.

DEC 5

Is the Global #MeToo Movement Over Already? Transnational Feminists Say Not Yet!

Harvey Weinstein still isn't in jail. But feminists from Brazil and Argentina to China, Indonesia, and Korea are devising new strategies to hold harassers accountable.

CLARK
UNIVERSITY

CHALLENGE CONVENTION. CHANGE OUR WORLD.

Both events free and open to the public

*Sponsored by the Women's and Gender Studies Program;
International Development, Community, and Environment
(IDCE); and the Political Science Department through The Francis A. Harrington Public Affairs Fund.*