Please Note:

- ◆ We may request additional information from you during the academic year to complete your application or disburse financial aid to your account as required by the Dept. of Education. This process may include, and is not limited to, a form called Verification of Family members, that looks similar to this form.
- ◆ If you are awarded financial assistance from sources other than Clark, notification of the award needs to be remitted to our office
- ◆ Financial assistance provided to the student based on employment to include but not limited to scholarships, tuition benefits or remission will reduce the Clark grant dollar for dollar
- ◆ Changes to the number of students attending undergraduate college from previous years may affect the offer of financial assistance from Clark for the 2018-2019 academic year.

*Our signatures below (electronic signatures cannot be accepted) certifies that we have read and understand all information included with the student's application for financial aid.
